The Word

Last Sunday, we heard another story of when Jesus appeared after His ressurection. He walked with them to Emmaus whilst they were sharing how upset they were at losing Jesus and they only recognised Him at the breaking of the bread.. This story demonstrates to us that Jesus will always be with us when we need Him and encourages us to recognise Christ in all we meet

Competition

Many thanks to all the children who entered our composing competition in the memory of John Froud. We have three winners - Georgia, Millie and Zakariya - congratulations to them! The ParentPay pot is still open for donations in memory of John and all he did for our school and community. Please contribute if you can as the funds will go to supporting the Zephaniah Trust charity that he set up to take the Word of God into schools in the local area.
